

212X DESKTOP CALCULATOR

Ibico 212X Calculator

ib410086

Overview

The increasing complexity of business demands the need for more functions – literally on the desk top – to assist business people to clearly calculate possible financial scenarios is a clear advantage.

Description

As financial complexities increase in our everyday business lives, we are constantly searching for solutions to make life easier. Ibico have a range of desktop business calculators to assist users clearly calculate all possible financial scenarios creating a clear advantage in your working life.

The stylish Ibico 212X desktop calculator is a great performing calculator, ideal for busy professionals, that strikes a superb balance between display size, large keys, increased functionality and desk space usage. Featuring a large 12 digit LCD display with adjustable tilt and comfortable raised keys for fast entry of numbers and functions, the 212X makes calculations quick and easy. Functions include tax +/-, profit margin, round up/down, currency conversion, 3 key memory, double (00) and decimal selection, percentage (%), change sign (+/-), square root (X), backspace correction and rounding function.

The robust and attractive 212X calculator is solar powered meaning you never need to worry about the batteries running out and it automatically switches off after a period of non usage making it the ideal choice for the environmentally friendly user or office. Sized at 35(H) x 144(W) x 213(D)mm to fit comfortably on your desktop and weighing only 0.262kg, it is the perfect companion for every financial calculation.

Features

- A superb balance between Display size, large Keys, functionality and desk space usage
- Adjustable tilt display, 12-digit LCD
- Raised keys for fast entry
- Rounding function
- Tax +/- function